Hello and welcome to Monobie (pronounced Mon-ō-bee) where anyone with Genital Herpes, Oral Herpes

Genital Warts

, and

HPV

(
Human Papilloma Virus

) will find the help and support they need to live rich and full lives while being responsible about their condition.

Monobie is the proud parent website of one of the coolest and most diverse Social Networking Communities for persons living with Herpes, HPV, and Genital Warts: Love, H Style (www.lovehstyle.com

).

Our purpose is to give our members the opportunity to connect with, or provide resources to clients, colleagues, family, and friends who share common interests only in a Herpes and HPV environment.

In our online social network, you can create a profile that describes you, or your organization, and then invite people to join you as "friends" also allowing you to upload videos, photos, create a blog, download music, post events, join groups, and send messages.

Monobie

is a website which is free

, and provides a wide range from general, to tailored for a specific demographic or interest area.

In addition to being a trust source of information and support, we also provide all members with access to an exclusive environment filled with others living with or supporting someone with HPV

or

Herpes

Welcome to Monobie!
